

THE FOX INTERNATIONAL FELLOWSHIPS

at the Whitney and Betty MacMillan Center for International and Area Studies at Yale

Accepting Applications for 2012 – 2013

A prestigious two-way international exchange program supporting outstanding students with demonstrated leadership potential from the world's finest educational institutions to spend an academic year at Yale University pursuing independent research in:

Economics

Political Science

Law

Environmental Policy

Business and Finance

Global Health

Management

Contemporary History

Grant awards include airfare, health insurance, housing and a stipend for living expenses.

Candidates are selected based on the following criteria:

Quality of research proposal

Academic achievement

Leadership potential

Commitment to being a “citizen ambassador”

For more information, application procedures and materials, or to read about the accomplishments of current and past fellows, please visit www.yale.edu/macmillan/fif/about.html