

Notice on 2026 Shanghai Government Scholarship Annual Review

Shanghai Government Scholarship students:

The 2026 annual review for Shanghai Government Scholarship Students is about to start.

The annual review is a comprehensive evaluation conducted on international students who are studying in China and receiving the Shanghai Government Scholarship (hereinafter referred to as scholarship students) every year to determine whether they are qualified to continue or resume receiving the Shanghai Government Scholarship.

I. Students Eligible for Evaluation

1. Students who continue to receive Shanghai Government Scholarship after September 2026.

2. Students whose scholarship assessments were deemed unsuccessful in 2025 but seek to reinstate the scholarship in September 2026.

3. Graduating students of the class 2026 (in July) do not need to participate in this assessment.

II. Review Content and Feedbacks

1. Review Content

1) Academic performance, including the grades and assessments of the first semester and the general situation of learning in the second semester;

2) Attitude towards study and class attendance;

3) Disciplinary record and rewards/punishments.

2. Review Feedbacks

The assessments are divided into “pass” and “fail”, along with recommendations on whether to continue, suspend, or cancel the scholarship.

III. Assessment Criteria

1. Students meeting any of the following conditions will have their scholarship suspended for one year:

- 1) Unable to pass the evaluation;
- 2) Repeating a grade or being demoted due to failing grades or unsatisfactory performance from the previous academic year;
- 3) Failing to achieve with the required course credit in two consecutive years;
- 4) Any violation of school regulations.

A Suspension of the Shanghai Government Scholarship will start from the beginning of the next academic year. However, the student may apply to continue their studies at their own expenses according to relevant school regulations. Before the end of the suspension period, upon the students' request, they may participate in the annual review of the current year. If the evaluation is passed, the scholarship can be resumed starting from the next academic year.

2. Students meeting any of the following conditions will have their eligibility for the scholarship canceled;

- 1) Expulsion or dismissal from the school;
- 2) Failing to pass the annual review twice during academic period;
- 3) Nonattendance in the annual review without valid reasons;

4) Other unqualified circumstances.

Those whose eligibility for the Shanghai Government Scholarship is canceled will have their scholarship suspended from the date of announcement, and their eligibility for the scholarship will not be reinstated.

IV. Review Materials Submission Requirements

1. Students are required to submit the “Shanghai Government Scholarship Annual Review Form”, the transcript for the first semester of the 2025/2026 academic year, and supporting documents (which may be photocopies) to their respective department/faculty by 22 April, 2026;
