

School of Pharmacy

International Student Summer Program July – August 2018 (4 weeks)

- Purpose: To expand the participants' international perspective on pharmacy education and practice and to provide exposure to US culture. The program is primarily focused on clinical pharmacy and therapeutics. The program is designed for international undergraduate pharmacy students.
- Time: July 9th to August 3rd, 2018
- Location: School of Pharmacy, University of Southern California
- Tentative curriculum and program activities:
 - Program Highlights:
 - ◆ Welcome reception
 - ◆ Overview of contemporary clinical pharmacy education and practice in US
 - ◆ Tours of Health Sciences and University Park campuses
 - ◆ Principles of patient assessment and medication counseling
 - ◆ Overview of principles of medicinal chemistry
 - ◆ Introduction of new drug development process
 - ◆ Pharmacotherapy for selected common disease states, including group discussion and presentation of related clinical cases
 - ◆ Tours of medical center pharmacies and selected outpatient community pharmacies
 - ◆ Closing reception with presentation of certificates of completion
- Requirements:
 - ◆ Fluent English communication skills
 - ◆ Adequate financial resources for fees and other expenses

- Tuition: $3200 USD, includes on-campus housing, program fees, airport transfers, and limited number of meals in conjunction with social/cultural activities (e.g., interaction with USC PharmD students at receptions, Los Angeles Dodgers Major League Baseball, Hollywood Bowl) on selected days.

- Contact person: Michael Wincor, PharmD, Associate Professor and Associate Dean for Global Initiatives (mwincor@usc.edu)